

Tesla bust unveiling ceremony at Curtin University at 4:00 pm on Friday, July 6th, 2012

at Building 215 Level 1, Curtin University of Technology, Bentley WA

Who is Nikola Tesla?

Nikola Tesla was the visionary with over 1500 inventions and 400 patents. His alternating current induction motor is considered one of the ten greatest discoveries of all time. He is the father of the radio and modern electrical transmission; Wireless communications and loudspeakers; Remote control, remote sensing and robotics; Fluorescent lighting and lasers; Vertical take-off aircraft and bladeless turbines; X-rays and vacuum tube amplifiers... to name just a few of his inventions!

Author of the bust is...?

Jovan Radanovic, sculptor born in Kalgoorlie WA; Bachelor of Fine Arts degree majoring in Sculpture at the Curtin University; studied at the Academy of Fine Arts in Belgrade Serbia; works as sculptor and designer for the Perth Mint.

Who will officially unveil the Tesla bust at Curtin University?

Paul Nicholls
Acting Executive Director at IVEC
Director Strategic Projects, Office of Research & Development at Curtin University.

Who should attend?

All those that want to promote science and education, students, researchers, general public, Tesla fans.

Welcome to 2012 Tesla Day

The ceremony is part of the 2012 Tesla Day Celebration programme dedicated to honouring the life and achievements of a man who has been described as 'The father of the 21st century', 'The genius who lit the World' and other well deserved titles.

Come and celebrate one of the greatest inventors of all times!

Entry: FREE

TESLA FORUM
PERTH WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Tesla Forum of WA is a non profit community organization gathered around the legacy of the noted early 20th century scientist and inventor, Nikola Tesla. Our objectives are to promote the science and education among Australian youth.